MSI Global Alliance appoints new members in Guatemala and Tanzania

MSI Global Alliance (MSI), one of the world's leading international associations of independent legal and accounting firms, is delighted to welcome its latest two new members in Tanzania and Guatemala.

CPA & Consultores joins MSI as its representative accounting member firm in Guatemala City. The full-service accounting and audit firm specialises in banking and insurance, government, retail and commercial sectors. The firm prides itself on an international outlook, working with clients across the Central American region and beyond.

Omar Vinicio Boror Boror, partner at CPA & Consultores, comments, "We are delighted to become part of MSI Global Alliance. This allows us to provide our clients with growing international needs, with reliable support worldwide and strengthens our growth strategy and position as a leading firm in Guatemala."

Also joining MSI is Lawfic Attorneys, based in Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania. The commercial law firm has a strong network within the East African region and long-standing relationships in the banking, government and not-for-profit sectors. Additionally, the firm specialises in tax law and has expertise in the mining, energy, oil, and gas sectors.

Seif Ngalinda, partner at Lawfic Attorneys, says, "We are excited to join the MSI Global Alliance family. This move will strengthen our international reach, ensuring our clients enjoy quality services for their businesses worldwide. We look forward to assisting fellow MSI members whose clients require legal support in Tanzania."

MSI's CEO, Andrew Leck says, "I am delighted to welcome both new members in Guatemala and Tanzania to our MSI global community. The fact that we are a multidisciplinary association of legal and accounting firms provides enormous value to the clients of our member firms. MSI membership will enhance the global reach of both firms and they will be warmly welcomed by our existing members."
